ANNOUNCEMENTS

Has Purchased House.

Richard S. Gernon of Plainfield, N. J. through the agency of James L. Case has secured the fine, modern house owned and occupied by Frederic W. Cary on Washington street. Mr. Gernon is a retired cotton broker, and was formerly a member of the cotton acchange of New York city. He has made his home in England and after visiting several cities was attracted by the beauty of Norwich.

Mr. Cary will begin the erection of a Dutch colonial house with seven rooms and two baths from plans of Concert to he Added Attraction to the Big Fourth of July Celebration at Nerwich.

our salvation. He is my both, as i am traveling over this unknown sea of life that anchor holds me steady.

Arrangements have been completed whereby the most attractive motorcycle races yet conducted at the Norwich Fair grounds will take place on the Fourth of July, Independence Day, immediately following the big Preparedness parade.

The management has made arraigements to start the races at 3.45 n. m. thus giving the people time to intrough which the will of God is revealed, and this way of salvation. When men try to settle problems aside from the principles and light and inspiration of this book, they are drifting. We cannot reach port safely without it. Another anchor is the there will be some of the best races yet witnessed in Norwich and the management has made arrangements for all the riders to be on hand promptly to avoid the usual unpleasant delay that takes place at the races by poor starts and late riders. All have been warned that the races will be samething doing all the time.
